Take Steps To Settle Question Of Lawrence - Andover Toll Charge

The first really definite step in settling the Lawrence-Andover toll call question was taken Monday evening when at a meeting in Shawsheen village it was decided to retain counsel to carry the matter through a poll, hearing, and final decision. A ways and means committee was named to appoint the counsel and make other necessary arrangements. Earlier the chairman of the public utilities commission Joseph Cotton, had expressed a willingness to hold a hearing on the matter, in a reply to Mr. Kelley of the Shawsheen Dairy, and yesterday in a personal interview with Selectman Roy E. Hardy and Edmond E. Hammond, Mr. Cotton reaffirmed that willingness.

The selectman and Taxpayers' association president saw Mr. Cotton to clear up some of the matters that had cropped up in the course of the controversy. The chairman stated that it was impossible to give exact and complete answers to all the various divergent questions that had been asked in letters from Andover because in many cases they involved decisions that must be made by the commission as a whole and decisions that must apply to the whole state. Their rules he said cannot apply to just one community but must be the same all over the state. He said that the commission would give proper consideration to any poll of Andover subscribers, and suggested that those interested should petition the committee for a hearing and explain just what the problem is.

In his letter to Mr. Kelley Mr. Cotton said:

"This problem of unlimited service to Lawrence is not a new one, and your suggestion that another poll be held to determine whether a majority of the people now prefer limited or unlimited service points to the fact that you are acquainted with its history. If the people in Andover feel that this matter should be taken up again

REV. MR. NOSS TO SPEAK AT 150th ANNIVERSARY

Rev. Frederick B. Noss will speak at the 150th anniversary observance of the Congregational church in Haverhill, N. H., on Sunday. Rev. Robert James E. Walter of Boston, associate secretary of the American board, will take his place.

An Open Letter To The Women Of Andover

European democracies stand at death's door not because democracy is a weak form of government but because democratic peoples have not yet learned or not yet accepted the demands made upon them for the preservation of freedom. They have not been willing to accept the responsibilities that go with their liberties. American democracy may have time to remedy this situation before it is too late. Just now when women are feeling as never before that service to the general calls of humanity is not enough, that the times call for specific service to their country, the League of Women Voters wishes to offer concrete and constructive suggestions.

What Can We Do To Help Our town?

- What can we do to help our town?
- We can work for better schools for our children; schools which will fit our children to live and work successfully as citizens.

- We can support and work for projects that are planned for local betterment.
- We can see that our town elects the best possible candidates for office regardless of creed, race, or party.
- We can inform ourselves as to how those we elect in town and country are doing their jobs.
- We can inform ourselves on the issues involved in state and national elections and vote and urge others to vote with intelligence in the November elections.
- We can work for honest efficient administration of our state and national government.
- We can think hard and straight on this question of civil liberty acting so that our liberties may be curtailed no further and for no longer time

BOARD OF APPEALS TURNS DOWN REQUEST FOR FILLING STATION AND APT. HOUSES

Finding that the "public interest will not be served by granting a permit for the erection and maintenance of a gasoline filling station" on the Shaw estate, the Board of Appeals has denied the permit and has also refused to grant a variance for the erection of apartment houses on the property, the latter because "there is an entire absence of any evidence as to hardship to the petitioner."

The decision handed down by the board stated that all members concurred. It stated that the property is partly in a business district and partly residential. After dismissing the filling station request, the board stated that the building of apartment houses in a single residence district is in violation of the zoning law and that a variance cannot be granted unless the petitioner shows to the Board's satisfaction that owing to conditions especially affecting the lot in question but not generally affecting the particular zone, a literal enforcement of the by-law would involve substantial hardship to the petitioner and that desirable relief may be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially derogating from the intent or purpose of the by-law. However the petitioner nor anyone representing him did not appear to supply this evidence. The decision was made without prejudice to the rights of the petitioner to petition the board again for the erection of apartment houses.

Report Gain In Willkie Followers

Anyone standing at the door of the Independent Willkie club of Andover two nights ago would have heard the following remarks from one of its members to a visitor: "What's the matter with Mr. Willkie? You say people don't want to lose the social benefits created by Mr. Roosevelt?... Well, who does? We don't... Mr. Willkie doesn't... Read the speech he made at Seattle. He says point blank 'I stand for every one of the social gains labor has made.' Sure he said that... yes and more! He stated specifically that he stood for the National Labor Relations Act, the right of Free Collective Bargaining, Minimum Wages and Hours and Social Security benefits... What!... Of course he has some positive plans. As he said in California he wants to take the brakes off business so that new enterprises can begin and old ones can expand and thus

Young Exhibit Now Being Shown At Addison Art Gallery

An exhibition of paintings, drawings, prints, water colors and sculpture of the well-known artist, Ma-honri M. Young, has recently opened at the Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips academy. The exhibition which will continue for six weeks was arranged with the help of the artist, who is the grandson of Brigham Young, the famous Mormon leader.

The exhibition forms a record of Mr. Young's work from his student days in Paris in 1901 to the present day. In his very early work, certain characteristics of his art appeared which have continued with little change. Probably the most important of these is his interest in people and in their bodily actions, and another is his skillful handling of drawing materials. In the exhibition there are several red chalk drawings of workmen in standing positions made in 1902 to 1905, two early pieces of sculpture "Bovet Arthur, a Laborer" and "The Stevedore," and several oil paintings in the dark colors and shadows which were popular in that period.

Returning to Salt Lake City in 1906, Mr. Young continued his sculpture of laborers. He has treated the laborers in all mediums from drawing and sculpture to water color and oil. His bronzes show men handling picks or chisels or drills, putting their bodies into their work. One oil painting of workmen done during the last ten years and finished in the studio of the Addison Gallery this fall shows two workmen on an "I" beam which is being hoisted into place on a New York skyscraper. In his interest in work and workers, Mr. Young admits an influence of the French painter Millet, who painted the picture of "The Gleaners," and "The Angelus."

Scenes of the boxing ring form one very important subject for Mr. Young's work. His "Joe Gans," a lifesize bronze negro boxer which is owned by the Madison Square corporation, greets the visitor at the top of the stairs in the Gallery.

His smaller groups of two boxers: "Right to the Jaw," "The Knock-down," and "On The Button," show a dramatic interpretation of fast action in the ring.

Throughout his career, the Indian has held Mr. Young's attention, and water colors and colored crayon drawings show his keen observation of the Navajo and his quiet life. In 1924 he installed an Indian group at the Museum of Natural History in New York.

Recently Mr. Young has been living in Branchville, Connecticut, where he has done a great deal of sketching, particularly at the country fairs. One of his very recent pictures in the exhibition is the large "Harness Races, Danbury Fair," which shows all the excitement of bright colors, running horses, and cheering crowds that one associates with a fair.

Eliminate Bad Feeling

There's one thing certain about the present telephone toll controversy, and that is that a showdown is near. Monday night at a meeting in Shawsheen it was voted to retain counsel to forward the case of those who want the toll charge eliminated, and in a reply to the Shawsheen Dairy letter published last week and also in a conversation with selectman Roy Hardy yesterday Chairman Cotton of the Department of Public Utilities expressed the commission's willingness to grant a hearing to the petitioners. So in not too long a time we should know definitely just where we stand.

Very probably a poll will be taken to serve as the basis for settlement, and it is only fair that such a poll should be taken. But in order to avoid any slip-ups the groundwork should be laid very carefully. It would be unfortunate for one side to draw up a question and take a poll, then only to find that the commission felt that the question was not fairly phrased or that undue influence was exerted on subscribers to answer a certain way. All phases of the poll should be agreed on beforehand by the petitioners, the telephone company and the commission. This includes the phraseology, the methods of securing responses, the weights if any to be given the different types of customers, and the definition of what a "substantial enough majority" would be. The prior determination of these things should eliminate bad feeling later when the result was made known.

If these matters are agreed upon, there can be no justifiable reason for opposing such a poll. Its purpose only is to determine what the majority of the people want, and in America no one can object to finding that out.

Old-Time Music At Good-Time Barn Dance

The Punchard Alumni association will swing into its first function of the Fall season with a new kind of old fashioned barn dance which will be held in Memorial gymnasium October 18. At the committee meeting in the high school Monday evening elaborate plans were made for the event and besides the usual cider and doughnuts, prize dances, barnyard informality of dress and high spirits, some old time fiddlers have been hired as a special attraction. Mark the date on your calendar and for only 35 cents in the accepted medium of exchange, a fortune's worth of fun will be received.

A box social under the auspices of the Andover Co-operative Society will be held at the West Parish vestry tomorrow evening at 6:30. The committee: Mrs. Henry G. Tyler, chairman; Mrs. Leslie Christison, Mrs. Arthur MacLane, Mrs. Donald Savage, Miss Virginia Remington and Miss Catherine Stewart.

But in order to avoid any slip-ups the groundwork should be laid very carefully. It would be unfortunate for one side to draw up a question and take a poll, then only to find that the commission felt that the question was not fairly phrased or that undue influence was exerted on subscribers to answer a certain way. All phases of the poll should be agreed on beforehand by the petitioners, the telephone company and the commission. This includes the phraseology, the methods of securing responses, the weights if any to be given the different types of customers, and the definition of what a "substantial enough majority" would be. The prior determination of these things should eliminate bad feeling later when the result was made known.

If these matters are agreed upon, there can be no justifiable reason for opposing such a poll. Its purpose only is to determine what the majority of the people want, and in America no one can object to finding that out.

Old-Time Music At Good-Time Barn Dance

The Punchard Alumni association will swing into its first function of the Fall season with a new kind of old fashioned barn dance which will be held in Memorial gymnasium October 18. At the committee meeting in the high school Monday evening elaborate plans were made for the event and besides the usual cider and doughnuts, prize dances, barnyard informality of dress and high spirits, some old time fiddlers have been hired as a special attraction. Mark the date on your calendar and for only 35 cents in the accepted medium of exchange, a fortune's worth of fun will be received.

New League Program To Aid Young People Prepare For Jobs

"WHAT CAN WE DO TO HELP OUR TOWN?"

"We can support and work for projects that are planned for local betterment."

To prove that its statement of policy, printed elsewhere in this issue, comes from the heart, the Andover League of Women Voters is now setting up the machinery for a guidance program designated to be of mutual value to our employable young people and to employers.

Already the sympathy and support of the school department has been enlisted and a citizens committee is in the process of formation. This committee, representative of the community's industrial, business and civic interest, will act as co-sponsors with the school department and the league. Indicative of the fine community spirit existing in Andover is the fact that of the dozen or more persons already asked to serve on such a committee, not one has refused. Still more encouraging for the success of our venture is the statement made by all those interested that the plan seems feasible and that the project would fill a very real need.

Briefly the plan resolves itself into three steps.

1. A survey of local employment opportunities and their requirements.
2. A survey of the local school set-up to see how closely it dovetails with the employment demands.
3. An organization created to provide occupational counseling to our young people and to serve as a clearing house for both employers and employees.

The first step will be taken in the immediate future. The second should not be difficult because the Pynchard high school faculty have already done splendid work along this line. The third and most important step can be accomplished only with the support of the community at large.

In times like these, surely no effort is too great if the result will be a happier and more satisfactory solution to the problem of placing "the right man on the right job."

Salute To Andover On Air Sunday

Andover will be on the air next Sunday evening and Selectman Howell F. Shepard will give a comprehensive talk on the town and its industrial activity and on Phillips and Abbot academies. The program will be broadcast from 6:00 to 6:30 over station WLLH with thousands of radio listeners in New England listening in.

This program is one of a series of "Spreading New England's Fame" which has been on the air continuously since January and which is headed by the famous Billy B. Van, New England's "Good Will Ambassador."

A commemorative scroll, signed by the local merchants who are sponsoring this radio salute to Andover, will be presented to Selectman Shepard.

Elman To Play Symphony Program In Academy Concert

From Phillips Academy comes a report about the unusual interest following the announcement of the Celebrity Series to take place in George Washington hall this fall and winter. The eminence of the attractions plus the popular nature of the programs has already been responsible for an avalanche of mail orders.

Mischa Elman, one of the most famous violinists of this generation, will give the same program he is scheduled to play in Symphony Hall, Boston, two days after his Andover appearance on November 22. Kerstin Thorborg, the leading contralto of the Metropolitan Opera company, and the popular duo pianists, Luboshutz and Nemoff complete the series.

When Elman plays, his instrument will be the famous Stradivarius dated 1717. This is one of the most prized violins in the world. It was presented to Mr. Elman by his wife who purchased it in Paris.

SERVICE CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT

The first Service club meeting of the season will be held tonight in Square and Compass hall and every member is urged to make a special effort to attend. Dr. Stowers is chairman of entertainment and he and his committee are planning some very interesting meetings. A large attendance record is one of the big objectives of the year so that the club will be better able to fulfill its purpose in the town.

Dirk van der Stucken will be the speaker at tonight's meeting and his subject will be "Current Events."

September 26, 1940

Dear Friends:

It is with a great deal of pleasure and pride that we extend to you a most cordial invitation to attend the initial showing of the new 1941 Ford cars at our Shawsheen Village salesroom all day Friday, September 27th.

In some years, and in some cars, automobile value takes a remarkable leap forward. 1941 is such a year for the Ford. This new Ford is a big car, with entirely new, larger, extremely wide bodies and a longer wheelbase. Everything connected with the ride is newly engineered, giving a completely new "boulevard" ride. The 1941 Ford cars offer greatly increased vision, with glass area in the Sedans increased nearly four square feet. The famous Ford V-8 engine is geared to give faster acceleration through the gears. A new frame, twice as rigid as before, helps keep the body quiet through long periods of hard service. And, inside and out, styling of the new 1941 Ford is smart and distinctive.

And we're equally proud of the new Mercury and the new Lincoln-Zephyr. We shall be glad to welcome our Andover friends at our Lawrence salesroom, 662 Broadway, where these beautiful new cars are on display.

We hope you will all be present to receive the same thrill that we experienced when we first saw these new cars.

Sincerely yours,
SHAWSHEEN MOTOR MART

Announcing the big NEW FORD 1941 FORD

In some years, some cars take a big jump ahead. The Ford does that for 1941.

It has jumped ahead in size. It's the biggest Ford we've ever built, inside and out. It's wider. It has a longer wheelbase. Its seating room is wider by as much as 7 inches. It has new wide doors and semi-concealed running boards.

You'll notice also a new beauty, achieved by a skilful blending of mass with longer flowing lines. Larger windshield and windows give better vision all around.

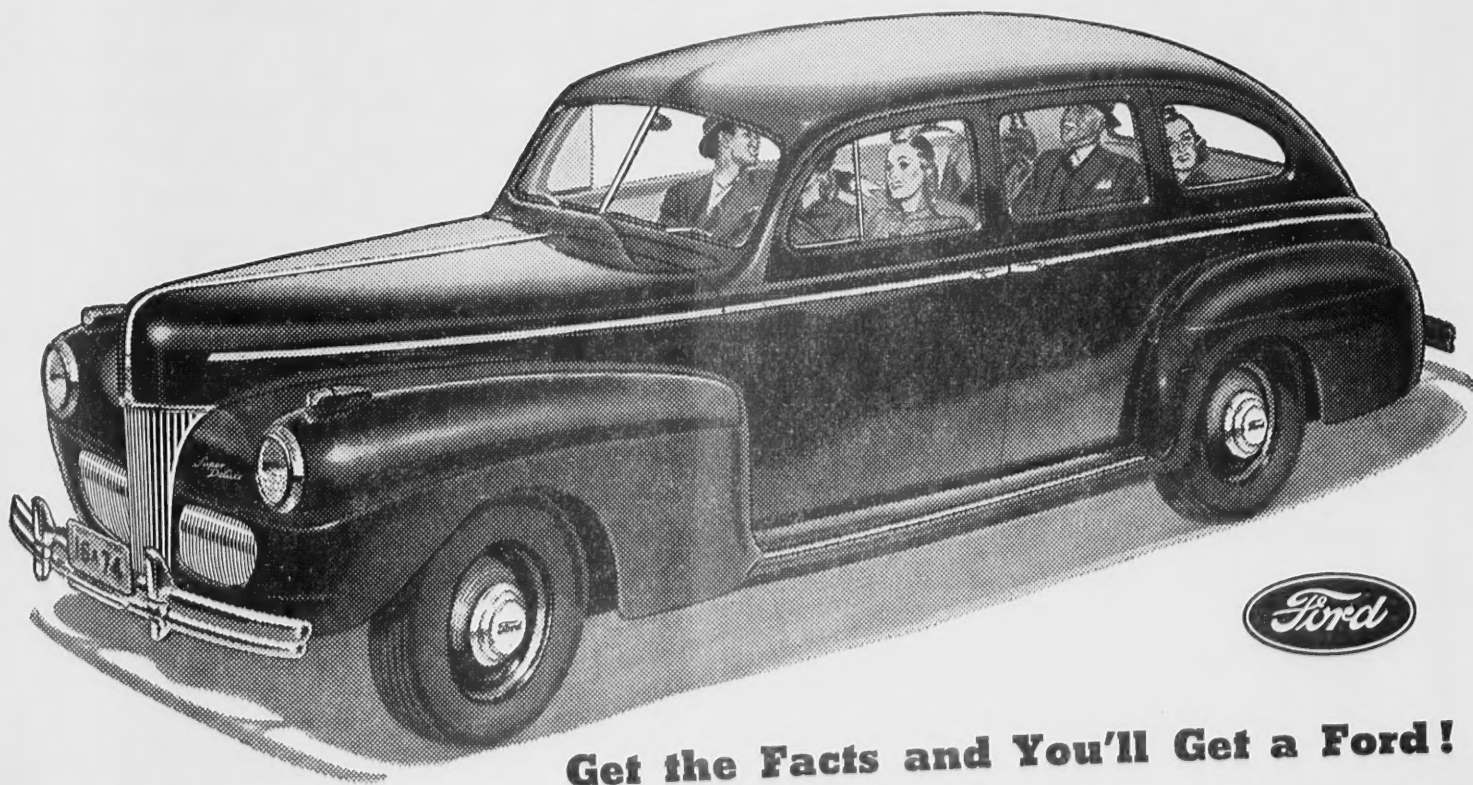

One of its biggest advantages is the new soft ride.

New, slower-action springs give a slow, gentle, gliding movement. A newly designed stabilizer helps absorb road shocks, and maintains balance on sharp curves and in cross winds.

More rapid acceleration to match its familiar speed and power makes this new Ford an even livelier car to drive.

These are only a few of this new car's outstanding features. It represents all the rich experience gained in building more than 28 million motor cars.

Any Ford dealer can give you many good reasons for making this your 1941 car.

TOLL CHARGES

they can, under section 24, chapter 159, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), upon written complaint of the Selectmen or by twenty customers of the company filed with this Department, require that a public hearing be granted.

"I appreciate this is a difficult problem in Andover and in the past it has been rather difficult for one to determine just what a majority of customers in Andover desire. If the matter is formally brought before us, of course the Commission would give the subject immediate action as circumstances would permit."

At the meeting Monday evening Chairman Joseph A. Mulvey presented some interesting statistics. He said that before 1925 there was no such toll charge as now exists, but in that year the Telephone company asked the Department of Public Utilities for a gross revenue increase of $9,460,000, with the Department granting an increase of $8,460,000. He said that the company's net earnings for the state went up from $6,001,874 in 1925 to $12,393,748 in 1929.

The exchanges are placed in various classes depending on the number of phones in each, Mr. Mulvey said. Andover is in Group VI, with 2660 telephones as of last December, and Lawrence is in Group IIA with 16,822 telephones. If Andover went in with Lawrence, basic rates would rise as follows: residential, one and two-party lines, up fifty cents; four-party lines, up twenty-five cents; business, up two dollars.

Tonight the Service club will talk the matter over and there is a possibility that there will be considerable discussion both for and against a change.

The ways and means committee as appointed to date includes: William Kurth and Joseph Gagne of Shawsheen, representing the Lawrence Chamber of Commerce; Arthur Sullivan and John O'Rourke, representing the Lawrence Retail Trade Board; Emil Schultz and Michael Lane representing resident subscribers; Joseph Mulvey and Dr. Joseph Dearborn of the Andover Business and Professional Men. If the Service Club is willing, two will be appointed by that group.

Holihan-Thayer

Miss Geraldine Mary Thayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Laurence Thayer of Epping, N. H., became the bride of James Peter Holihan, son of Mrs. James P. Holihan of 30 Morton street, at a nuptial mass, Saturday morning, in St. Joseph's church, Epping, N. H.

The bride and her sister, Miss Olive Thayer, who acted as her maid of honor, were lovely against the background of pretty fall flowers which decorated the church. The bride's gown of white satin was cut en train and her knee length veil of illusion was draped from a becoming coronet of seed pearls. She carried a spray of white orchids and white gladioli. Her sister wore a magenta pink taffeta gown with harmonizing accessories and her bouquet was of lavender orchids and gladioli.

William B. Holihan was his brother's best man and the ushers were John Dineen, Dr. Thomas Foley of Manchester, N. H., Thomas Thayer, brother of the bride, and Joseph P. Holihan, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception for relatives and close friends was held in Exeter Inn, Exeter, N. H., following which the couple left on a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, Va. They will make their home at 6 Carisbrooke street, Shawsheen.

The bride is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire and is employed at R. H. White Co., Boston.

Mrs. Maude Syder of Somerville attended her sister and Homer Wadman was his brother's best man. Rev. Mr. Noss performed the ceremony, after which the young couple and members of the immediate families enjoyed a wedding dinner at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wadman left Saturday evening for a boat trip to

The bride was attended by Mrs. Arthur Reason and was given in marriage by her father. Attorney William H. Keller was the best man.

Marriage Intentions Very Popular With Local Couples

Since January 1, 1940, one hundred and thirteen young men and one hundred and thirteen young women have tripped up the town hall steps to the town clerk's office and announced their intentions to wed. Tripped is used in both the "step lightly or nimbly" sense and the "stumble" sense. They have been observed doing both.

But whether "stepping lightly" or "stumbling," one hundred and thirteen couples arrived in Mr. Winslow's office safely and received marriage licenses.

Last year only ninety-eight couples had taken the trip as of September 25. One proffered explanation besides leap year has been that since the government has been stepping up the production of munitions, Cupid decided to step up the production of arrows, and consequently local couples have been stepping up to the town hall.

And more beaux are stumbling upon the idea every day!

Dr. Harry V. Byrne of Lawrence has purchased two lots from Jerome W. Cross.

create new jobs for the millions out of work."

That is a sample of their approach to many of their present workers and of their effort to avoid wild generalities in presenting their views to impartial thinkers.

Now in the middle of its third week, the club is about ready to contact through its workers in this same way each Independent and Democratic voter in Andover. It emphatically states that it has absolutely no connection with local parties and again asserts that its sole purpose is to help elect Mr. Willkie. It can already report a substantial gain in the number of Democrats and Independents who have swung over to Willkie's support. It also urges any Democrats and Independents who are interested in working for Mr. Willkie to sign up immediately by sending their names to headquarters at 50 Main street. Their motto is "Don't sit back and hope. Get out and work."

Football Season To Start Saturday

Well, boys and girls, the local schoolboy pigskin parade will get under way officially on Saturday, when the boys in Blue and Gold of Funchard entertain the big Red of Amesbury at the playstead at 2:30, and the Phillips academy team takes on Nichols Junior college at Brothers Field at 2:00. As yet, practically nothing is known of the strength of the Funchard team, other than the fact that they are big, fast and aggressive, but lacking in experience. There is not a single veteran in the lineup no matter who starts. Captain Connolly will probably start at quarterback, and he will have such running mates as Duke, Collins, Yancy, Buntin, Parsons, Lewis and Kearn to help carry the mail. Almost all of these boys have the one qualification for which we, in this corner, feel there is no substitute...that is speed. They are the fastest set of backs that we have had at the local school for several years.

The line will be manned by such stalwarts as Lynch and McDonald at tackles, another Lynch, Graves, Harig and Paine at guards, and Morrissey at center. The starting ends will be selected from Keith, Greene, Babicki, and Moore.

The Amesbury club looked good even in defeat last week against Methuen, and Fred Twomey's boys will probably provide a very interesting afternoon for the local hopefuls.

Steve Sorota has bumped into the injury jinx up on the Hill, with Tom Dwyer, a blocking back, and Don Green, backfield speedster, hors de combat. Steve will probably start Read or Rockefeller at quarter, Furse and Keuffel at halves, and Joe Drake at full, with the line from end to end Beardsley, Bolter, Royce, Fisher, Cox, Stilwell and Ferguson.
